Veterinary Ventures Drinkwell® 360 Featured on ABC's Good Morning America

-Good Morning America's Resident Veterinarian Dr. Marty Becker showcased his top picks from Global Pet Expo –

(Reno, NV) – Sean Rowe, president of Veterinary Ventures, Inc. is thrilled to announce the Drinkwell® 360 recently appeared on the widely popular national morning television show Good Morning America. The show aired on March 18, 2009.

“When you're home, the Drinkwell® 360 fountain is a great way to provide fresh, clean water to your dogs and cats, especially if you have more than one,” said Dr. Becker to ABC. “The clever thing here is that you can set multiple spouts at different levels — giving all your pets a chance at the water without their having to jostle for position, and it comes apart for easy cleaning,” said Dr. Becker.
